FILM NIGHT – 'MY REMBETIKA BLUES' NOW TO BE SCREENED DURING THE GREEK FILM FESTIVAL

After her successful film 'Dogs of Democracy', a story about the stray dogs of Athens and the people who take care of them, Maria Zournazi returns with a brand new film.

'My Rembetika Blues' delves into Greece's music history as it explores the Rebetiko genre around the world where Greeks reside and how it connects them.

The film looks at the underground scene of Rebetiko in the early years as it became the focus of intense criticism and its subsequent ban namely 'απαγορευμένα' due to its controversial content at the time.

Maria Zournazi travels to different locations, from Constantinople to Boston to Sydney, as she discovers how Rebetiko spread to other parts of the world through the mass migration of the early 20s.

It was recently decided that the film will not be featured during the Odyssey Festival at the Greek Movie night but instead it will be screened as part of the Greek Film Festival, to be held from the 6th to the 9th of November at Palace Nova Cinemas.

Please refer to the cinema's website for screening sessions and pricing.
