2024 ODYSSEY FESTIVAL
ART EXHIBITION GUIDELINES

Competition Open

The Odyssey Festival Art Prize is an annual competition run in conjunction with the Greek Orthodox Community of South Australia's (GOCSA) Odyssey Festival.

Entries for the 2024 Art Prize are now open, and artists have until 11:59pm on Friday 13 September 2024 to lodge their submissions.

Prizes

Three main award categories are available. A First Prize of $1000, a second prize of $600 and a third prize of $400.

Who can enter?

Artists of any age can enter. Entrants may submit up to three original artworks based on the theme announced by the GOCSA Cultural Committee. Staff from the Greek Orthodox Community of South Australia, Cultural Committee members and people involved with the administration or judging of the Art prize are not eligible to enter. Artworks shall not carry artists' names or signatures when they reach the judging panel. They should only be numbered.

Cost of entry

The entry is free of charge. First winning art piece remains the property of GOCSA, and will be exhibited at the sole discretion of the GOCSA.

What is eligible?

Any form of original visual fine art, including digital art, related to the Greek history, language and culture is eligible for the Art Prize, except photography.

What are the judging criteria?

The Odyssey Art Prize is traditionally related to Greece, Greek culture, history and locations. The Judging Panel will carefully inspect and consider each piece, and make their decision on the artistic merit of the work.

The decision of the Judging Panel will be final.

Who are the judges?

The three judges are independent arts professionals who have no affiliation with the Greek Orthodox Community of South Australia.

What are the key dates?

The competition opens on 3 July 2024 and closes on Friday 13 September 2024 at 11:59pm. Judging takes place in the week leading up to the launch of the Odyssey Festival. All entries will be exhibited for public viewing in the Olympic Hall from the opening night of the Odyssey Festival.

Do I have to allow my work to be exhibited?

All works entered must be available for the duration of the exhibition. At the close of the exhibition, artists will be responsible for collecting any works that are not award winners, unless they wish to donate them to GOCSA.

Are works for sale?

Works exhibited by the Odyssey Festival may be made available for sale by artists, with exception to the winning art work which becomes the property of GOCSA.

How do I enter?

Entry forms to the 2024 Odyssey Festival are available online via www.gocsa.org.au or at the office of GOCSA, 262 Franklin Street, Adelaide SA.

Upon entering, artists will need to provide a brief CV outlining their artistic career.

By entering, the artist consents to images of their works being reproduced, and their biographical information and/or photograph being used by the GOCSA and their agents, without additional compensation.
